

Rural Action East works in support of rural communities across the East of England

POLICY OFFICER

For this new post, we are seeking an enthusiastic individual to improve our strategic influencing and advocacy work.

You will research and analyse policies, collect data and produce well argued policy papers. You will work with Rural Community Council colleagues across the region and coordinate their collection of data and use of information.

A working knowledge of rural communities and what issues concern them would be an advantage.

Working as part of a small, energetic team, you must be self reliant, innovative and able to work proactively on your own initiative.

This will be underpinned by excellent organisational and communication skills supported by effective use of ICT.
